

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle at Undershaw
Talk and House Tour
Saturday, 28th October 2017
3.30pm – 5pm

Members only event

You will enter this beautiful Arts&Crafts building through the main entrance where you can admire the magnificent staircase and Sir Conan-Doyle's former office.

In the main hall local historian, Julia Mayo will tell us about the life of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle; focusing on his years in Hindhead and including the many organisations and projects he was involved with in Surrey. Sir Arthur was a man of many parts and played a role in the political life of the country at the time, together with creating a number of memorable literary characters. The future of Undershaw has been in the balance for many years and the charity behind Stepping Stones have made the most marvellous job of preserving the Arts and Crafts house and honouring the creator of Sherlock Holmes.

After this fascinating talk, we will be taken around the first floor of the building to see what used to be Sir Arthur's and his wife's bedrooms and library in smaller groups and the building's caretaker will tell us more about the building's current life as a school

Booking is essential. The talk and house tour are priced at £6/member. You may book your places for this chargeable event, which follows our free AGM, by using our new online event booking system. Alternatively, you may print and return the downloadable slip below. Please include your e-mail address or a stamped addressed envelope so you may be sent full details, directions and locations for the visit.

Please note that the Surrey Hills Society and its Event partners accept no responsibility for any loss, damage or personal injury during events. Participants are requested to wear appropriate clothing and foot wear and take due care and attention. The Society uses members' photographs on social media and on our website. If you are not happy to have your photo taken during this event, please notify us in writing prior to the event and make the event organiser aware on the day.

Please return this slip to the address above, before Thursday 26th October if you wish to join us for the day:
